

JOSEPH E. RYAN

USAF Assignments after Mexico, 1990-1995, and Private Sector

- 6/90 to 9/92 Air Attaché, American Embassy, Mexico. Conducted liaison and coordinated mutual interest and cooperative programs with the government of Mexico.
- 9/92 to 10/93 Assistant Inspector General. Directed fiscal, operational, and management inspections of Defense Attaché Offices at American Embassies worldwide.
- 10/93 to 1/95 Dean of the Joint Military Attaché School. Directed preparation of DOD civilian and military personnel and their spouses for diplomatic assignment in U.S. embassies worldwide.
- 2/95 to 9/95 Chief, Training Division, Defense HUMINT* Service at the Defense Intelligence Agency. Created a new office to direct, manage, and coordinate three specialized joint-intelligence schools.
- (HUMINT stands for the DIA unit which collects human intelligence in field assignments)

After Retirement in 1995:

- 9/95 to 6/12 Project Manager, SRA Consultants.

Overall Summary of Career:

Twenty-eight years experience managing large organizations with global functions and fixed operating budgets.

Six years planning, directing, and conducting management effectiveness inspections and performance audits of complex functions and sensitive operations.

Nine years success in developing, directing and delivering education and training programs up through post-graduate level.

Seven years experience living and working overseas. Extensive travel throughout Latin America, the Pacific, and Asia. Professional level Spanish.

Thirteen years experience in the planning, managing, and conducting complex flying operations.

